It was Tom's 7th birthday. He woke up to find his room decorated with balloons and a colorful banner. His mom greeted him with a big hug and a birthday kiss. His dad had planned a special breakfast, with pancakes, sausages, and lots of maple syrup. Later that day, his friends came over for a party, with games, pizza, and a big chocolate cake.
Tom blew out the candles and made a wish. He had so much fun that he didn't want the party to end. It was the best birthday ever!
